'Tis so Sweet to...
Trust in Jesus

On marriage: "Welcome to an advanced course of death to self." - Ron Moore Season 7

"OH, taste AND SEE THAT THE LORD IS GOOD;
BLESSED IS THE MAN WHO trusts IN HIM!" PSALM 34:8 NKJV

It's time to celebrate our 10th anniversary! We thank YOU for joining with God to make Parent Compass possible.

No matter the problem. No matter the struggle. No matter the complication. Jesus died to restore us. With Parent Compass you are bringing the presentation of Christ to parents, children and families around the world. Is there anything more important than faith and family? Thank you for being a champion for God.

Two important things God is trying to tell us are: I love you and trust Me. When the storm is rocking everything you know, it is God that brings strength and peace when we feel His love and trust even when it might not make any sense.

People like you bring faith to families as the calling of Parent Compass, award-winning global television series, is to present God. Each season starts with true stories of real families facing real struggles where the Compass is Christ and ends with Chats with Christian Leaders. Besides many internet platforms, God has given a tremendous platform through multiple television broadcast networks; that are global to 190 countries in English alone, as well as, Spanish (global); Farsi (Iran, Afghanistan, 120 million mostly Muslim reach); and Russian (global).

Thanks to friends like you, God doubled the Parent Compass ministry with a family wilderness survival feature film, inspired by Pilgrim's Progress, called Miracle on the Precipice!

On Tuesday, October 6th at the Gala we will celebrate God, our 10th anniversary, and how sweet it is to trust in Jesus! In order to continue presenting God to families, would you consider sponsoring a table that will fund the production of Parent Compass Season 8?

For families to know how sweet it is,

"It is a time of intensity and struggle for a lot of parents and they are not alone. It is scary to raise kids at this time. For every generation before, the threats were physical and would have to get close to harm them. That is not the case anymore. Technology is super scary. But God is on the throne and He is not leaving the throne." - Julie Hildebrand
"Navigating in the Storm" Season 6

"I had to go 18 months without taking any money home. Trusting Him is giving Him everything even the things you have worked on. I had to give up things I did not want to give up." - Brody Hildebrand Season 6

Could I Interest You in Dill Pickle 'n Cream Ice Cream?

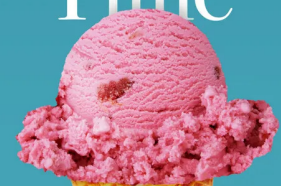

Blue Bell CEO Ricky Dickson would tell you it was NOT a fan favorite among Blue Bell's customers either, but that willingness to take risks, to pivot, and commitment are qualities that lead to success.

In his 43-year career at Blue Bell Creameries, Ricky's journey isn't just about ice cream; it's about faith, resilience, and the transformative power of believing in something greater. As a devout Christian, Ricky's leadership has been guided by his unwavering faith, which helped him navigate through challenges such as Hurricane Katrina and the recall of products due to a pathogen. His story is a testament to the strength found in God, even in the face of adversity.

"Faith seems easy – until it gets hard. So, how can you find peace during the most difficult times of your life? How do you anchor a ship when the waves are tossing you about?" asks Ricky. "Recognizing God's voice is critical when trying to follow the path He has laid out for you. This is especially true when His directions don't make sense and become difficult. But it's in the struggle that He will strengthen you and provide an indescribable peace that can only come from Him."
